

BROUGH FOLLOWERS BOSS CONVENTION

Hold Upper Hand of Democratic State Meeting in Arkansas.

LITTLE ROCK, May 31.—With supporters of Dr. Charles H. Brough, Democratic nominee for governor, in complete control of the Democratic state convention, which opened today, it seems probable that the platform which will be adopted tomorrow will criticize the administration of Governor Hays.

Doctor Brough, severely criticized the governor in his campaign speeches and today former Congressman Stephen Brundidge of Sevier offered a resolution deplored the "excessive use of the pardoning power in recent years," the appointment of relatives of the governor to office and the illegal appointment to offices "in political debts." The resolution was voted out of order because the convention had not yet been organized, but Mr. Brundidge announced that he will introduce it tomorrow.

Read Work Today.

Today's sessions of the convention were devoted to organization and preliminaries. The real work will be taken up tomorrow. J. V. Walker of Fayetteville was elected temporary chairman and Patrick Henry of Muskogee was elected secretary. Dr. Head of Texarkana was elected permanent chairman and Mr. Henry permanent secretary. All three are friends of Doctor Brough.

Governor Hays, at the invitation of the convention, delivered an address. An ovation greeted Doctor Brough when he appeared on the platform.

In his address Temporary Chairman Walker eulogized President Wilson and paid a high tribute to William J. Bryan, and said that the party to be adopted contains a plank advocating woman suffrage. A delegation of women members of the Arkansas Political Equality League will appear before the resolutions committee tomorrow to urge that this plank be included.

It is expected that the convention members will follow its usual custom of instructing the delegates to the national convention to vote as a unit on all measures.

"What were they going to do in India?" Mrs. Neims was asked on direct examination.

"Found some sort of a new religion," she replied, "but I got so sick of that in his letters that I read and that chose read to me that I've tried to forget it."

Inters. Mrs. Neims said, signed his letters to Mrs. Dennis with such disdains as "my own precious little girl" and "my own little sweet heart." She added that the letters frequently contained his divorced wife, Anna Nichols' name and said she was trying to make trouble for him. It should be noted that Mrs. Dennis thought Anna was not married at the time she knew him and that she brought the present Mrs. Victor Dennis along with her, according to Mrs. Neims.

SHAKE-UP OCCURS IN LOCAL COLLEGE

It was learned yesterday that the members of the board of trustees refused to permit members of the faculty who have not been removed to appear in defense of the removed faculty members nor would they give any reason why the four members of the faculty had not been retained for the coming school year.

The action of the members of the secret committee of the faculty square with what had been said, as diverse as a member of the council are as follows:

When it was announced that there was to be a shake-up in the administration of affairs at Henry Kendall college with the advent of Charles Evans as president, a lot of the faculty members who were on the board of trustees felt they deserved

This list did not include Professors Cook, Eisenmenger, Keen, and Mr. Lee.

The list given for this section was given at the time, according to the council member, and none followed; although on several occasions attempts were made to secure information on the subject.

Met Only Rebuff.

The arrival of the president of the board of trustees in Tulsa yesterday to attend the commencement exercises presented an opportunity for removal of the efforts on the part of the council to retain the whole student body, but their efforts were徒劳的. At each turn they were met with a refusal to give a reason for the elimination of the four names from the faculty roster.

President Johnson would not permit representatives of the council to appear before the trustees would not permit members of the faculty to remain as a member of the faculty, was a general loss to the school. The main point of Professor Eisenmenger.

He is a leader in his field in the southwest.

His services have been of the highest value to the students viewpoint and until this action by the board of trustees there was no indication that he would not be retained.

He has done more for the student body than any other one man to bring Kendall to the place which it now holds as an educational institution in this part of the country. His removal as a member of the faculty will be a severe loss to the school.
